The Anatomy of A College

The College of New Rochelle is more than a school, it is a friend. Buildings are its body.

A dorm, a senior house is a place to call home.

Classrooms are places where learning begins.

The teachers are its mind.

They are the ones who bring out the desire to seek knowledge.

They enrich the Spirit of the College.

Activities, are the ways in which we enrich campus life.

They give us pride in our school.

And at the heart of the college are the students.

They are the people in the buildings, activities, and dorms.

The friends we love.

Together these elements give CNR a body, a mind
a spirit, a heart.

They are The Anatomy of a College.

Dedication Sr. Alice Danaher

Students who meet Sister Alice soon learn that to know her is to love her.

Sister Alice Danaher is a familiar face on the CNR campus. She has a constant smile that brightens up every room she walks into. As head of Campus Ministry and Advisor to the Class of 1984, she has been with the seniors for four years and her support has been the back bone of the class.

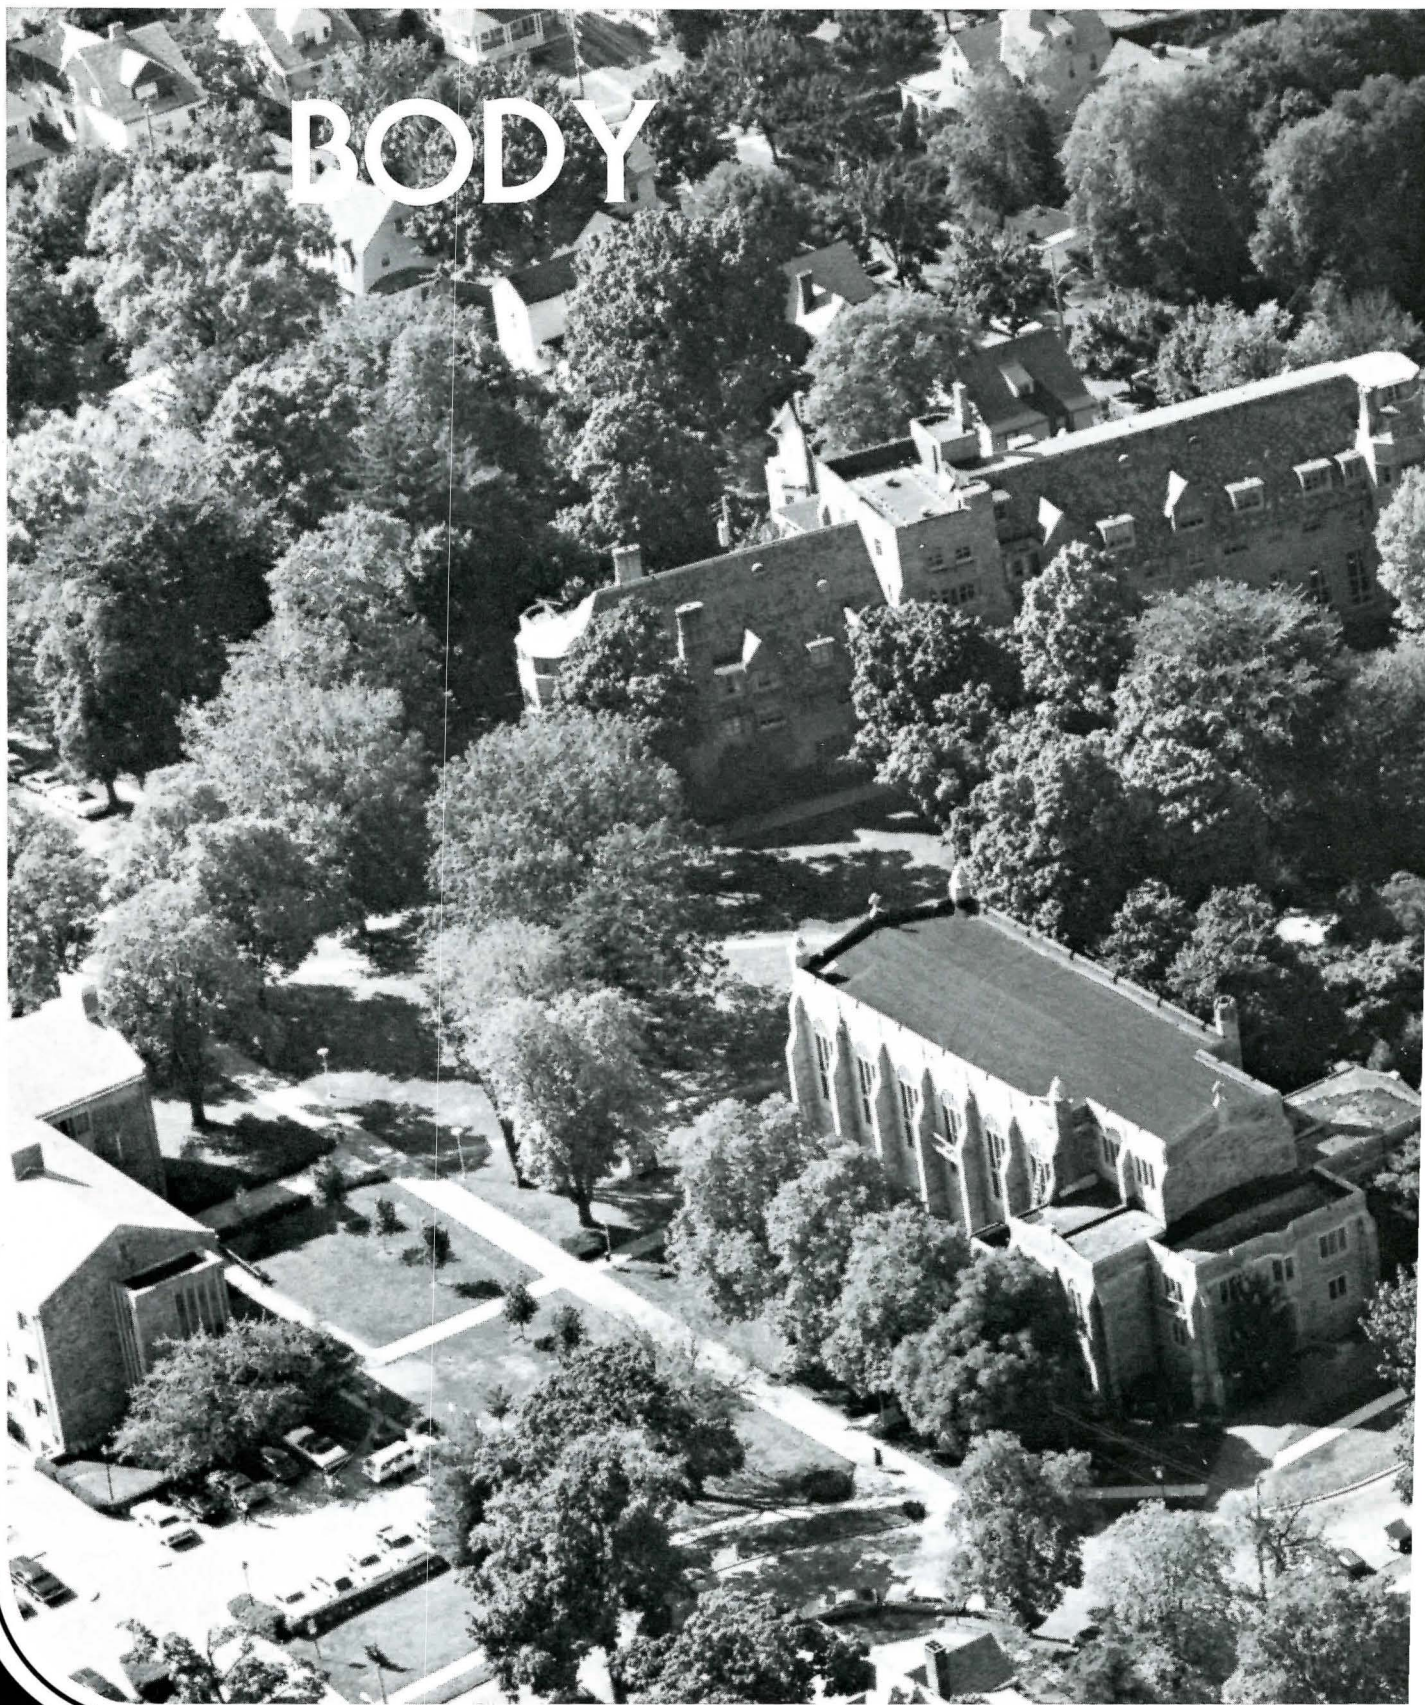

Her positive attitude and passion for life make her the campus's guardian angel.

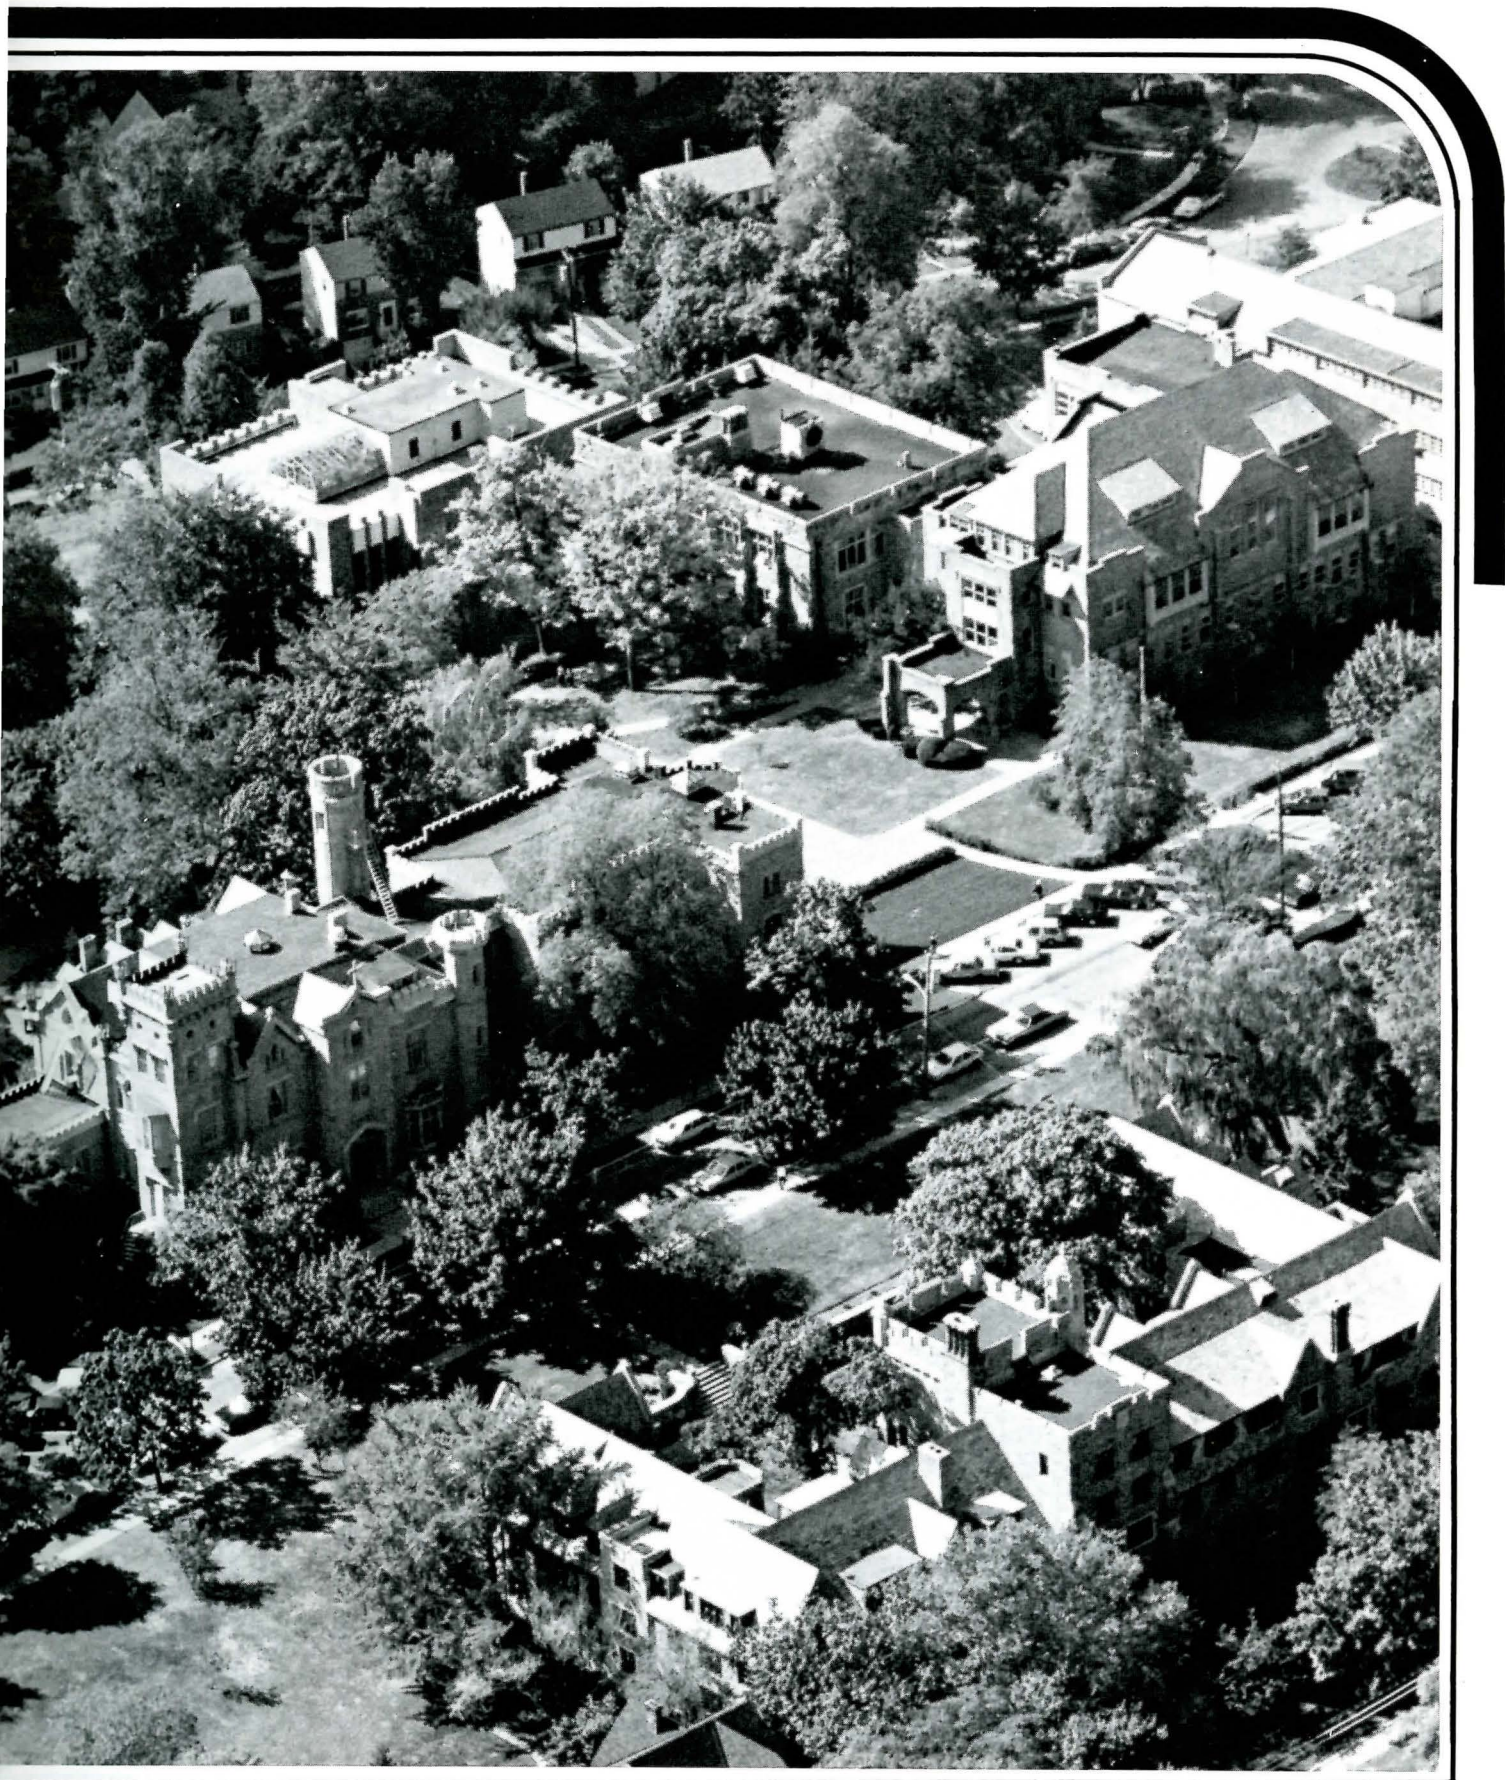

We dedicate Annales 1984 to Sister Alice Danaher, a woman who is an inspiration to all of us.

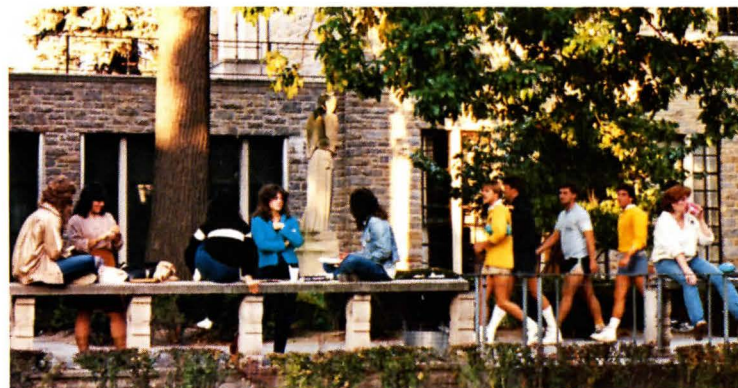

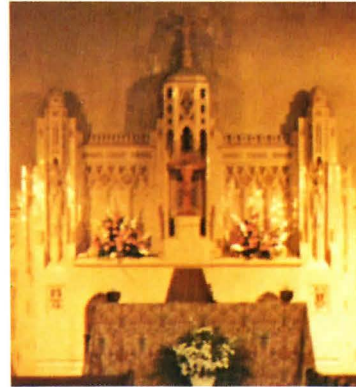

BODY

When the ways of friends converge,
the whole world
looks like home.

Hermann Hess

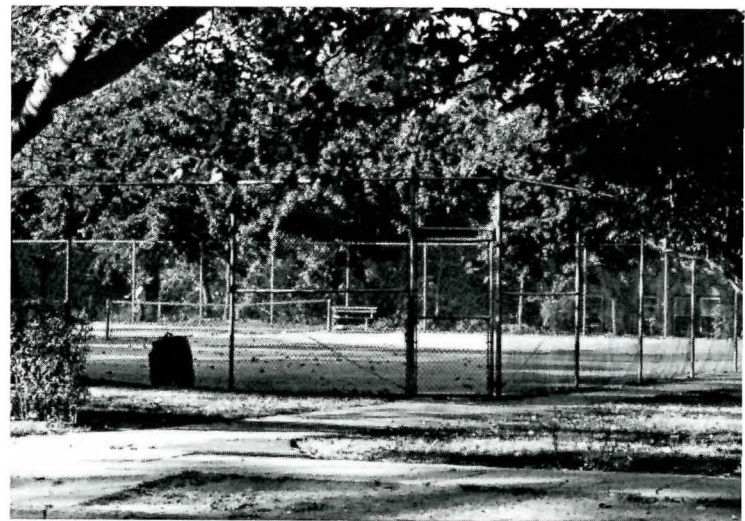

What is a typical CNR student? She spends about 20 hours a week on the books, sometimes even in the library . . . She does laundry at odd hours and runs to her mail box once a day in hopes of a letter from home. She laughs with her friends and hangs out in the commuter cafeteria, her dorm room, the locker room and maybe once in a while on the ever famous North Avenue. She may surround herself with books or friends. She may involve herself in every activity possible, a few, or none at all. What is the typical CNR student? Anything but typical!

Junk mail again!

Tennis anyone?

This is the way we do our wash . . .
so early Monday morning.

The light that guides.

Mary Magee and Carhy Collins enjoy each other's company over lunch.

You like this?

Hi there!

Hi there!

Remember all the quiet times
the thinking times
the dreaming times
the study times
the dinner times . . .

... the silly times
the happy times
the laughing times
the loving times
I shared with you,
my friends.

The dining hall can be a peaceful place.

Nancy McAuliffe insists that she got her A.

Becky Cahill has some good news for anyone who will listen.

Brescia is beautiful all year around.

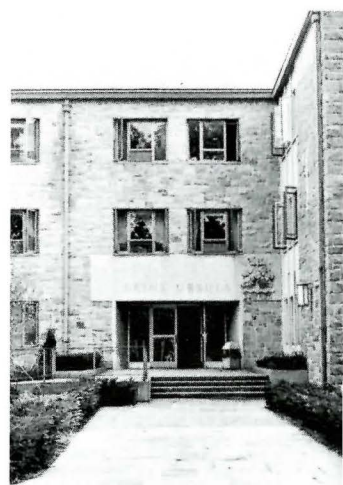

What a smile!

What a handsome foursome comprised of Nancy Walsh, Bonnie Kerner and the two gentlemen at their sides.

Each of us marching to the beat of our own drummer

Bullwinkle Fan Club member — Sharon Regan!

Beth Cunningham, Tish Rock and company at their best.

Mizzi Oremus deep in thought about her future.

Joanna Grover smiles for the camera.

Anne Kerrigan and Farimah take a moment to enjoy some classical music.

Maureen Kane enjoys a mid-afternoon stroll around campus.

True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends, but in their worth and value.

Barbara O'Hara and Jenny Dearani know that Senior year is a blast.

A pleasant personality is reflected in her smile.

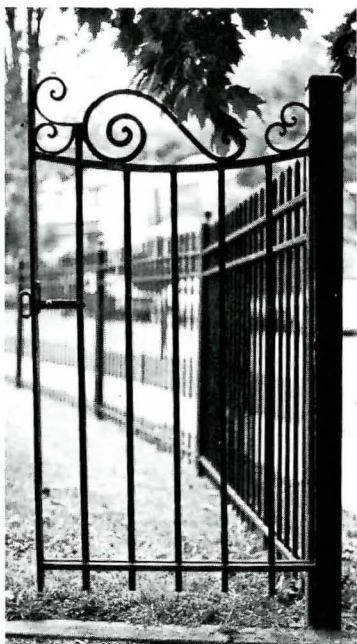

Brescia is even beautiful in Autumn.

Through these doors pass the future of Nursing.

Looking for nuts?

"All the world's a stage and each must play a part." Shakespeare

"Can you come out to play in my empty garden?" Elton John

"Did you see that appendix?" Mairead Fahey asks Jean Russi.

Taste it! It's a cool whip facial!

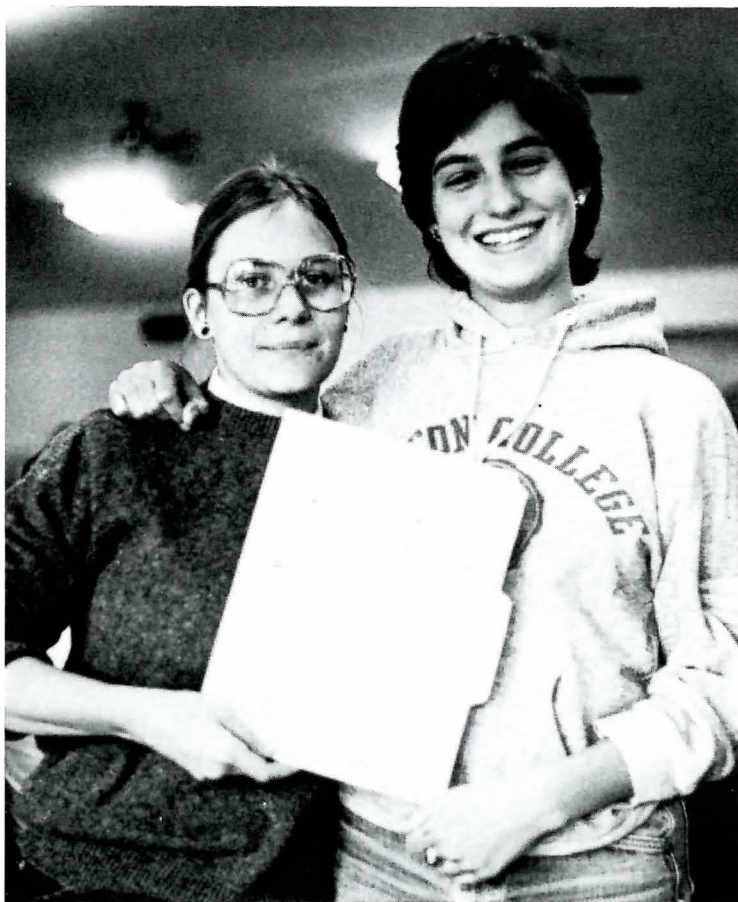

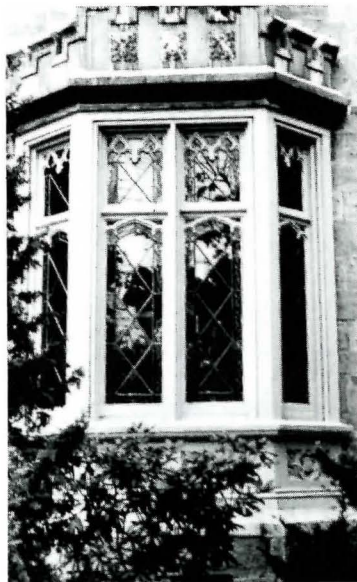

"This Bud's for you!" Marlena Muller tells her friend, Mary.

For some reason, Sr. Therasas' manages to show up everywhere!

A window on the world.

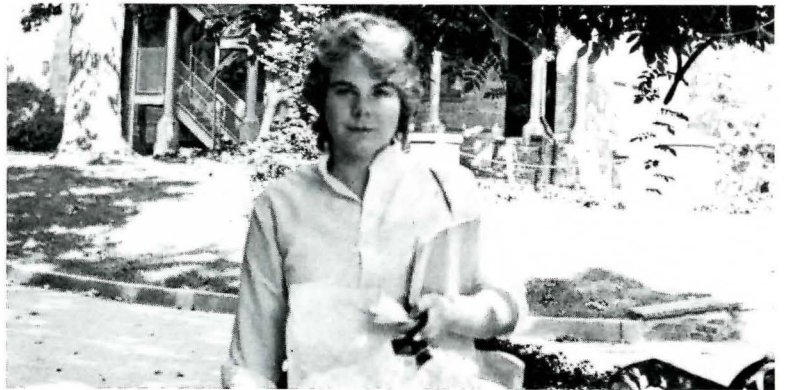

Yeah, we're in college!

Laura Martelle pretends to be camera shy.

Nursing: Mary Magee and Nancy McCarthy wonder if it will be like General Hospital.

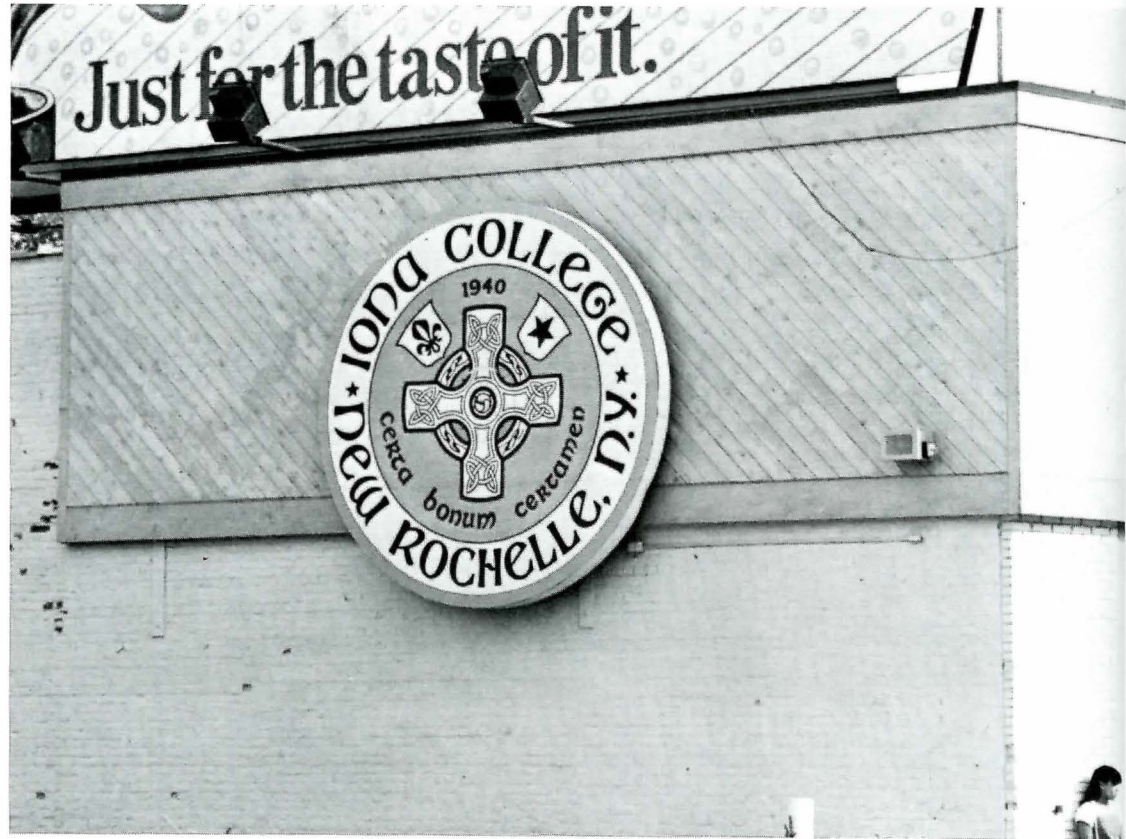

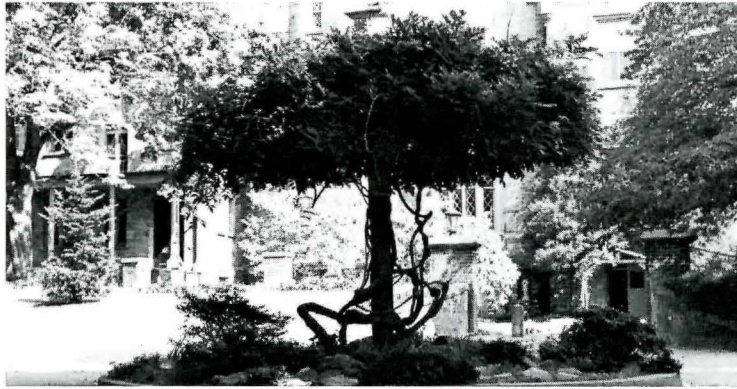

Buzzy dishes it out to the girls.

Indivisible.

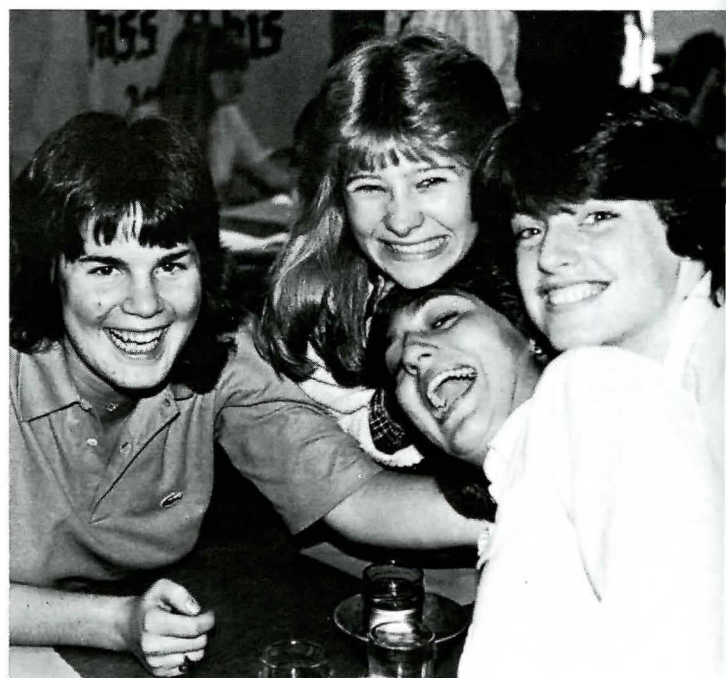

There's a little leprechaun in all of us!

Juniors

Three years down and one to go. Juniors seem to be settling in to taking life more and more seriously, knowing that the outside world is only a year away. Internships, anticipation — taking time out with freshmen sisters, junior ring — are all a part of the life of a junior at CNR.

Junior Class officers:
President: Anne Kezer
Vice-President: Debbie Crehan

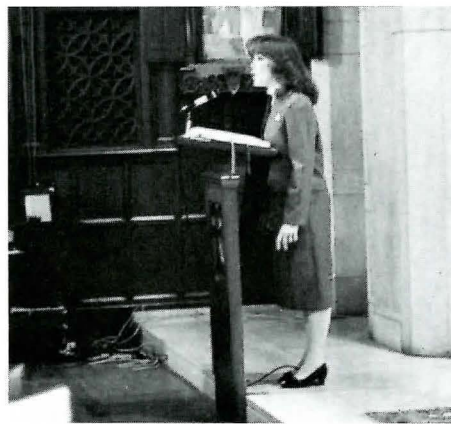

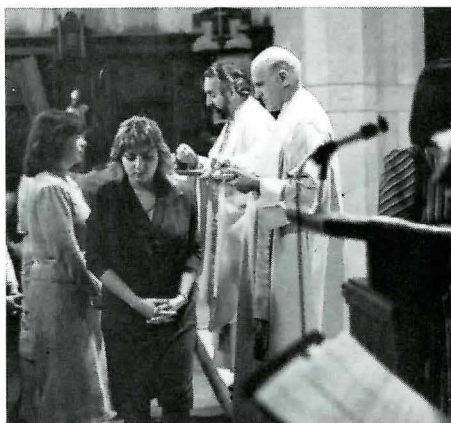

In My Life

There are places I remember
All my life
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends
I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I've loved them all.

Sophomores

After one year at CNR, they are no longer the new girls on campus. Renewing friendships in the fall, settling down to the routine of campus life again. Sometimes sophomore slump sets in, being in-between classes. The big event for them is nurse's capping and sharing the excitement of 200 Days with their Senior sisters, passing time with friends and looking forward to everything that comes.

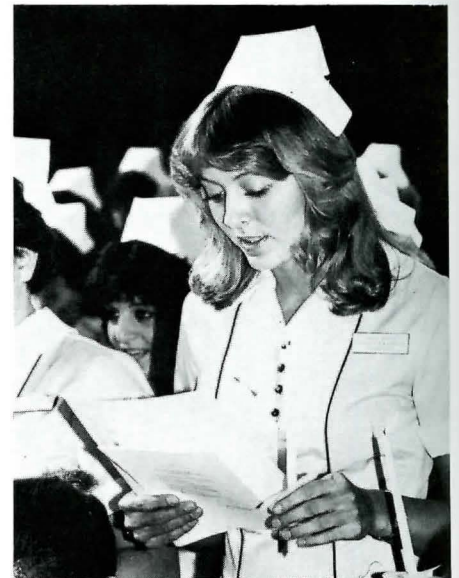

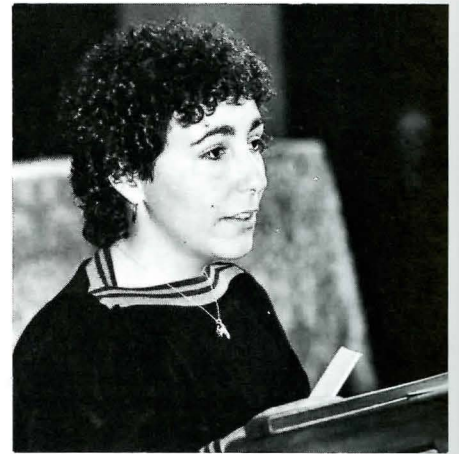

Officers: Nancy Colihan, President, Tricia Brosnan, Vice-President, Carol Sullivan, Secretary, Jean Levicki, Treasurer, Sr. Anne Bunting, Advisor,

The stranger who walked into your room last year and introduced herself as your roommate is now one of your best friends. All those unfamiliar buildings now look like home. After a year of living and learning at CNR we could feel our lives falling into place here as sophomores.

After one year of striving and working toward excellence comes the first reward, the culmination of one year as a nursing student. A step closer to the goal. The nursing capping ceremony.

Freshmen

New faces, new places, new friends. Freshmen at CNR are a welcome addition. Each Fall, fresh new faces come to CNR and become friends by Christmas break. One may be your freshman sister, the other may be sitting next to you in class, and others offering new ideas in campus organizations. They bring new blood that revitalizes the campus each year.

Senior Haunted House

Goblins, witches, and warlocks assembled for the haunted house run by the Ghoulish Senior Class. A howling good time was had by all who dared to enter. The final night for a good scare was Halloween. The chilling conclusion to this shocking experience was a successful fund-raiser for the seniors. A tradition in the making.

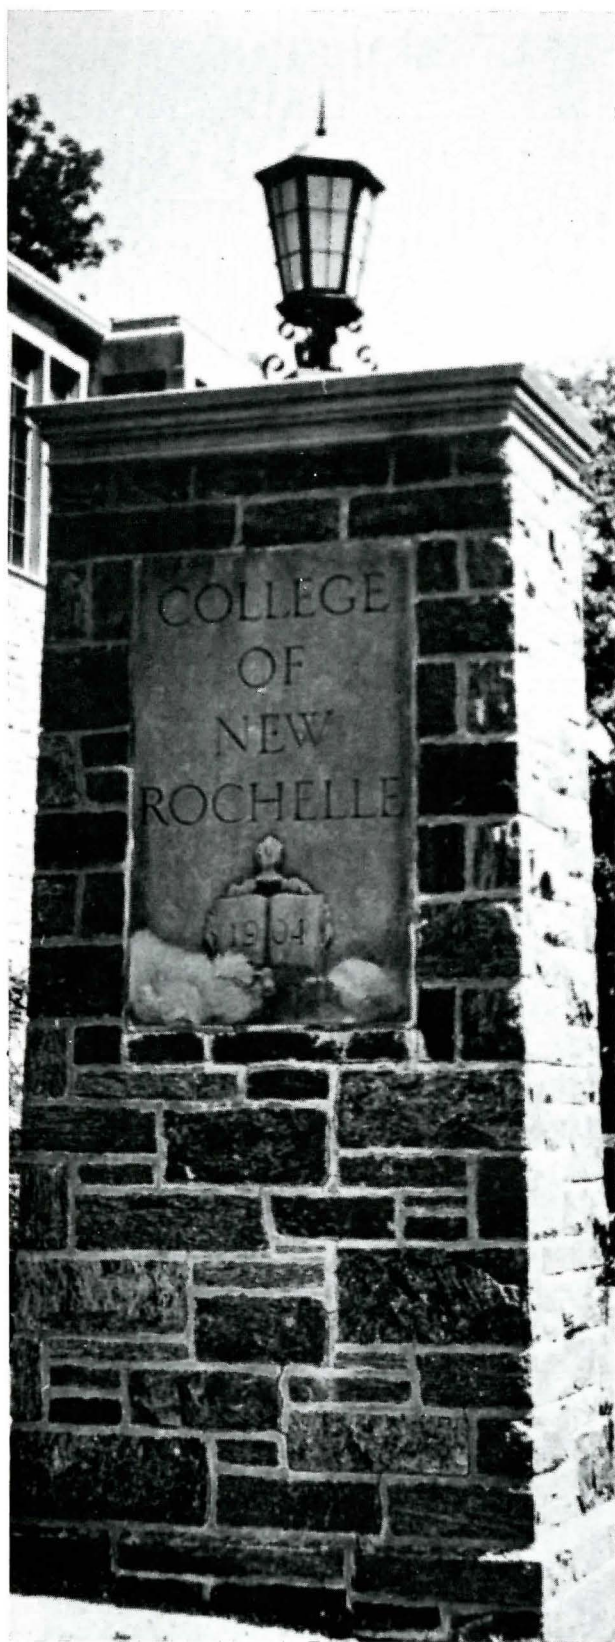

200 DAYS PARTY!

WE LOVE YOU SENIORS! was the sentiment of the sophomores when both classes got together to celebrate 200 days to graduation. The party began at dinner on Thursday and continued on through the night. On Friday, seniors and their favorite men gathered in Maura ballroom to continue the celebrating. All this celebrating done amid balloons that were everywhere the seniors were.

CNR

1904 — 1984

You've come a long way baby!!

The College of New Rochelle was founded in 1904 by the Ursulines and was the first Catholic college for women in New York State.

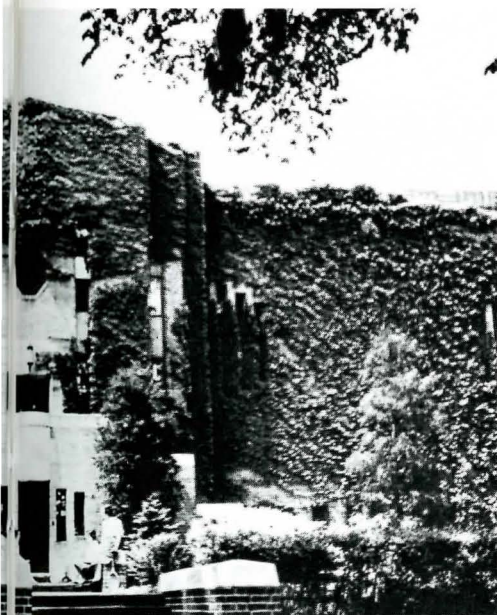

In the last 80 years, both the campus and the student body have grown. The touchstone of the college, the Castle, was once used for classes and housing. It presently accommodates faculty offices, the Castle Gallery and is used for college receptions. The Castle is also on the National Register of Historic Places. The college campus as we now know it, grew up around the Castle through the years, with the most recent dorm, Ursula Hall being completed in 1962.

What about the rules? We may complain about parietals, but there was a time when males were not allowed in the dorms at all. Imagine the mixers in the 1920's and 1930's with regard to the alcohol policy ... Time has brought about many changes in the rules about curfews and lights out, but history is still in the making. A new tradition began in 1983 when the Locker Room, the campus pub, opened in the Sports Building. In addition, restoration of the Holy Family Chapel has begun with the support of the students, alumnae and members of the community.

CNR is 80 years strong in 1984. Its constant growth and change with the changing world around it and its continued tradition of academic excellence combine to give us and future young women unlimited possibilities.

CNR — the way it was — the way it is Styles of dress in CNR's athletic department have changed as much as the students in the last 80 years. Can you picture the Blue Angels of today going into national play with the uniforms worn by the team in 1915?

Not only have styles changed in the last 80 years, but so has the way of life at CNR. We no longer line up for mail, nor do we eat in Maura Ballroom as in 1935. We now have the luxury of mailboxes in our dorm and dinner in CNR's dining hall

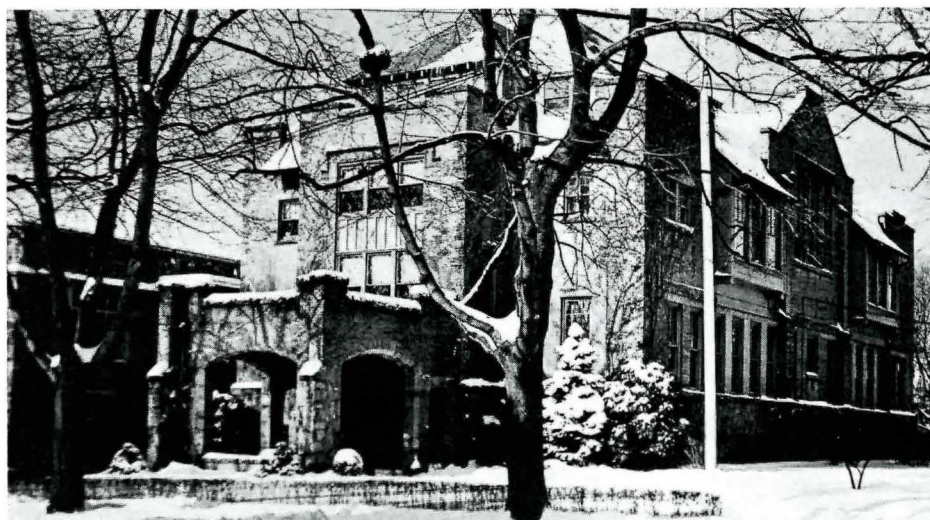

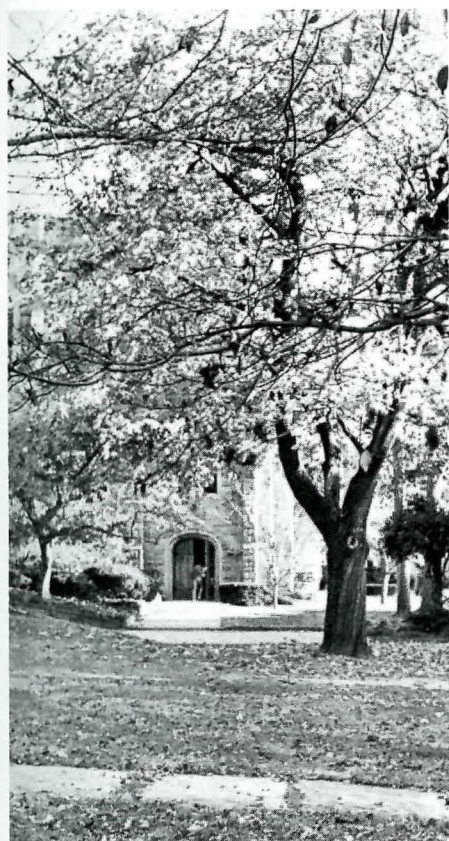

CNR's Supply Store, 1947.

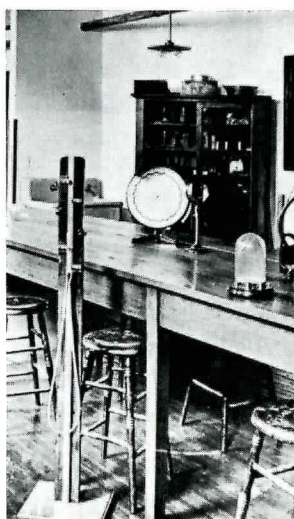

With every changing season comes the changes in our live. For every leaf that has fallen, another shall grow in its place.

How suite! The "privacy" of having to share a bathroom with only three other girls and an apartment-life style of living making this a favorite dorm for upper-classmen.

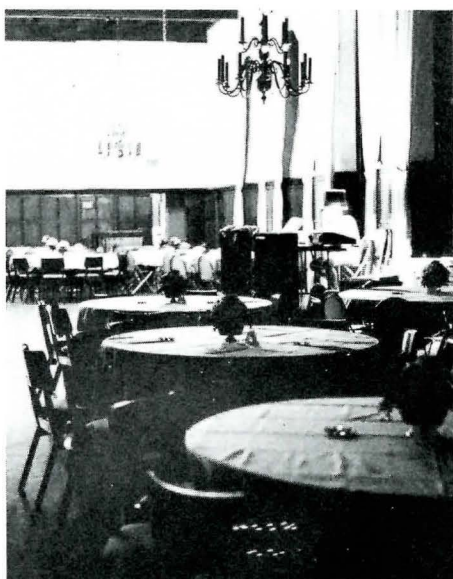

Brescia Hall

Filled with old-fashioned charm, the Brescia livingroom is a great place to gather, especially to set the scene for scary movies at Halloween or for quiet conversation with good friends.

Maura Hall

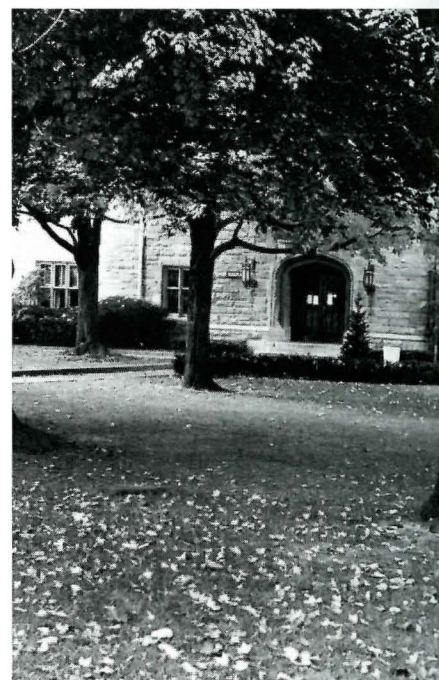

Traditions . . .

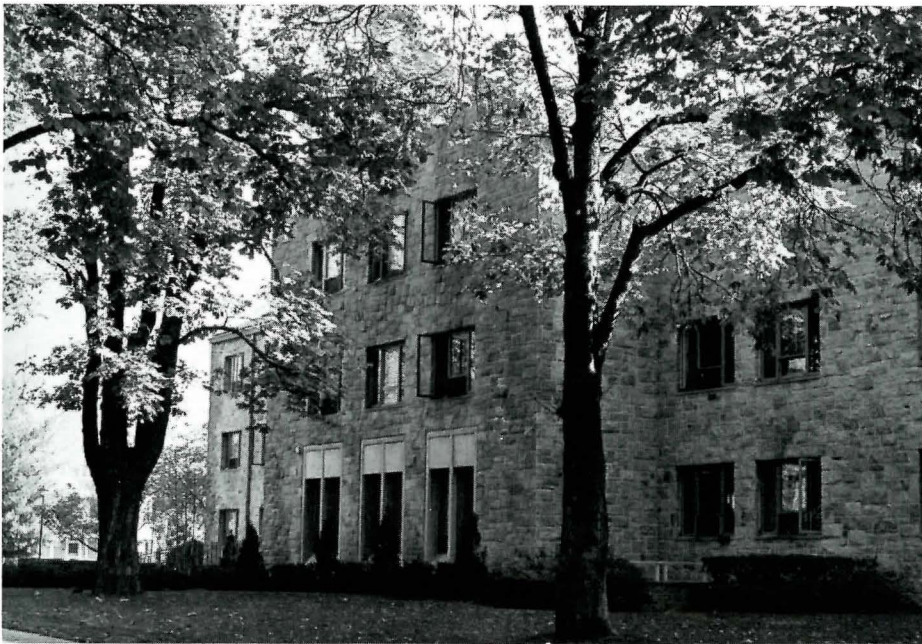

Maura hall holds some of the most treasured traditions in her ballroom. Junior ring dances, senior dances, and the friends made in the rooms upstairs.

"We May Never Pass This Way Again", Loser. I don't want to go to class. We're history. Let's blow this clambake. I'm authority! I'm going up, anyone want anything? Wait Til I tell you what happened. Do you have a cigarette? Hi Sweetheart. Catch ya later. Like my party. Love me — love my roaches. Who's the best mermaid . . . ! Has anybody seen . . . ? Dining at Nick's Place? I don't want to grow up, I don't want to go to school. I hate this place. I can't wait to get out of here. Make it worthwhile. This is our last . . . Abbey. Leave the room, so we can talk about you. Hey Kathy Fitz, pass the salt. Does this make me look fat? Aimee — the matured woman. Hey sexy Babe. It's totally orgasmic. Roast beef, pot roast, chicken or fish. How did we get home? Isolate your hips, girls. Did anybody get a clearance clip? It's Friday, let's go low ridin'! Anybody get mail? Get off the phone! How about the party on the 12th, let's be sure to plan a party for the next blizzard. "You Are" Block Party. All I need are some tasty waves and a cool buzz. Massive Makeout. "It's Raining Men" "Celebrate" Who wants to do Jane Fonda? Aimee, got something against birthdays? Booze Cruise 1982. Don't forget the procedures for alcohol abuse. We don't have a fund agent . . . who's leaving a gift anyway. Sharon, remember the booze cruise or rather the bruise cruise? Who can tap a keg? Cindy, catch anything on the boat? Thank you Bob Bonfaglio. We finally got together for REAL Italian food, right Laura? GWEE, GWEE, GWEE! "O" Sex. FOAD. True, True. New York, New York. $10 for a three minute phone call to London to talk to the operator. Can I have everyone's attention — could you please just Shur Up! Bulldogs live? A lady Di Party. Keith, put your clothes back on! Love those men in uniforms. Kate, how was Maine? See any cure cowboys? WE LOVE YOU SOPHOMORES! How about getting first in Swimphony — we got everything else. Engagement — It's A God Damn Epidemic! "5" Thanks for sharing! SIGMA PHIS NOTHING. Did you get any Chemicals at the Chemical Bank, Nancy? Check out the snow bunnies. Don't put it in too soon. Sex, sex, sex. Don't touch my white underwear. Have a peaceful rest. Where's my bed? Whose centerfold is it? Who has Christine's Paradise? Aimee, bake any cookies lately? — Sharon will help. Check out those baked potatoes on P.M.! I have so much to do! Too fun, Too fun! Hey Bud, wanna party!? Nancy, did you do your laundry yet? Aimee and Nancy, where are my socks? Key Kate, are those carrots or yams? Road trip to Katonah. Blaze, leave your blazer in the bathroom much? Sharon get any Roses today? Dynasty. Has anyone seen the soaps lately? Is Laura back? Gucwa, is that a disease? Hideme. We're over here! Table for 27 Follow me. Sleep with Angels. Thanks for the Cherry Cake in my face! I can relate. What a long strange trip its been. "I've loved these days" Hey Curie. Yo WENCH — I love you. You can't spell couRAge without RA! One Thousand Nuggies to you. If my mother only knew. O.T.R. Thank God. Let's go sunbathing on the roof, Gisonde will never know! I can't deal! I'm in heavy like, but we're just good friends! Nancy, put your glasses on so you can hear me! Gina, we miss you. "So Many Men — So Little Time" Vs. "So Little Men — So Much Time". It's a Keeper!

To our family and friends,

We love you all very much, Thanks for the Memories! Sharon Regan, Kate Kenny, Nancy McCarthy, Nancy McAuliffe, Aimee Lane, Laura Martelle, M.J. Morpurgo, Kathy Mahoney, Tara Hart and Debbie Blasius.

Let us now turn back the clocks and remember "THE BEST OF TIMES" FRESHMAN YEAR: Brescia livingroom rm. 19, closet rooms 11 & 14, Little Gina, 2 South Seaport, coming in the alarm doors at 3 am, dancing bottles. SOPHOMORE YEAR: Gina & Amy play detectives, Sigma Phi's Nothing, popcorn, peanutbutter & jelly & potato chip sandwiches, West Point O-17, so many men, smurfs, Beth's debut in Florida night club. JUNIOR YEAR: England, X-Mass picture, Calzones, food??, West Point A-16, Africa. SENIOR YEAR: M.G. — oops M.J. reduces, polar bears, phone bills, cookies??, M.J. & Beth need lips, block party, assistants, he had nice teeth, right here, Garrison, ya wanna? Let's talk, infractions. Jonna — Jonna — Jonna!
Well, I guess you had to be there . . .
